The Fudge Batch

Midge and Fitch made a batch of fudge in the kitchen. Mom helped them mix it in a big pan. Then Mom set the hot fudge on the ledge. Smudge the dog sat by the ledge and sniffed. “Smudge, do not snatch the fudge!” said Midge. Midge and Fitch ran to fetch the plates. When they got back, the fudge was not on the ledge! Fitch looked at Smudge. “Did you snatch it?” said Fitch. Smudge just sat, but there was no fudge on his nose. Then Mom opened the fridge, and there was the pan! “I set the fudge in the fridge to chill,” said Mom. Midge gave Smudge a big hug. Smudge did not snatch the fudge at all!

The Gold Ring

Mom had an old gold ring. It was the ring she liked the most. Then Mom could not find it! “I had it by the sink,” said Mom. “Where can it be?” “We will try to find it,” said Midge. “Do not cry, Mom.” Fitch looked behind the trash can. Midge checked the dish rack and the mat. Then Fitch went to check the dog bed. In it were a sock, a mitt, a bone and the gold ring! “Why was the ring in the dog bed?” said Midge. “Smudge, you sly pup!” said Fitch. The Bunny in the Tangle

It was sunny and windy, so Midge and Fitch let Smudge run on the grass. Smudge sniffed by the shed and gave a yip. By the shed was a little bunny stuck in a tangle of string! The bunny gave a wiggle and a kick, but the string did not let go. Midge ran to get Mom, and Mom came to help. “Hush, Smudge,” said Fitch. “Sit still.” Smudge sat, but he gave a little wiggle. Mom held the bunny still, and Fitch gave the string a tug. The tangle was a big muddle. Fitch picked at it a bit at a time. Then the string fell off! The bunny twitched its fluffy nose and ran off into the brambles. The kids had the giggles. “Hop, little bunny, hop!” said Midge. Fitch tucked the string in the trash can.
