Name: _____

The Storm at the Farm

Carl and his pal Norm spend the morning at Dad's farm. They brush the horse and fill a cart with corn. Then the sky gets dark. “A storm!” said Carl. The wind starts to whip, and the horse stamps and snorts. “We must get the horse to the barn,” said Dad. Dad and Carl grab a rope, and Norm props the barn open. The horse is upset and will not go. Dad pats its neck, and Carl holds up a cob of corn. “You can have more corn in the barn,” said Carl. The horse trots into the barn, and Dad shuts it in. Crack! A flash fills the sky, and drops start to fall. Dad, Carl and Norm dash to the porch and grin. The horse is snug in the barn, and it munches corn.

Directions: Read the story. Answer each question with a complete sentence.

1. Where do Carl and Norm spend the morning?

2. What starts to whip?

3. Where do Carl and Norm dash at the end?

4. Why do you think Carl holds up the corn?

Name: _____

The Silver Ring

Vern has a big sister and a kitten. The kitten naps in a basket of yarn. His sister has a silver ring. One morning, she cannot find it. “My silver ring is lost!” she said. Vern and his pal Bert jump up. “We will help!” said Vern. They check under her bed. Then they check in the corner and behind the bench. No ring! “It cannot be far,” said Bert. Just then, the kitten hops up from its basket. Bert spots a flash of silver in the yarn. “The kitten had it!” said Bert. Vern hands the ring back to his sister. “You two are better at this than I am!” she said. She pets the kitten and grins. “Next time, my ring will go in a box,” she said.

Directions: Read the story. Answer each question with a complete sentence.

1. What does Vern’s sister lose?

2. Where do Vern and Bert check first?

3. Where does Bert spot the ring?

4. Why do you think the ring was in the basket?
