Roy's Toy Truck

Roy has a red toy truck. He enjoys his truck, but it has a problem. When Roy pushes it, the wheels squeak. Squeak, squeak, squeak! The noise is not fun. Roy's cat, Paws, hides under the bed when the squeak starts. “Dad, can you fix my toy?” Roy asks. Dad points to a little can on the shelf. “This can has oil in it,” Dad says. “Oil will stop the squeak.” Dad drips a bit of oil on each wheel. Then Roy wipes the drips off with a cloth. Roy sets the truck on the rug and gives it a push. The wheels spin, and the truck makes no noise at all. “Yes!” Roy says in a happy voice. Paws peeks from under the bed. He sees the truck and taps it with his paw. Roy and Paws play with the toy truck all day, and Roy is filled with joy.

Dad points the light up at the big oak tree. Big round eyes look down at them. It is a brown owl on a branch! Next, Roy writes a note. It says, “I love you, Mom!” Knock, knock! Mom is at Roy's door.
